

CONTENTS

VOLUME 121 NO 5
SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2006

COVER STORY

26 WILD THINGS
Why is fur back on the catwalk,
asks Sally Feldman

FEATURES

- 8 KAMIKAZE DIARIES
Emiko Ohnuki-Tierney gets inside the minds of the suicide pilots
- 10 DOWN TO EARTH
Brian Morris on the pioneers of humanist ecology
- 14 LITTLE MONSTERS
Caspar Melville examines children's fascination with the dark side.
- 18 THE ORWELL FACTOR
Jenny Joseph is charmed by Eileen Blair's letters

30 OUT OF THE SHADOWS
Toby Saul on Velásquez's way of seeing

CULTURE

- 34 BOOKS
- NINA POWER
is put off by Auster's posturing
- MICHAEL BINYON
on a time of neither revolution nor glory
- ROSIE WATERHOUSE
on the gonzo trail of human sacrifice
- MARTINA EVANS
discovers Roddy Doyle's way with women
- PETER WOIT
visits Paul Davies' universe
- EBENEZER OBADARE
on the genius of Ngugi Wa Thiong'o
- 39 ATALANTA
A new poem by Alan Brownjohn

Don't forget to sign up to NHupdate, our fortnightly email newsletter.

Go to www.newhumanist.org.uk
for details